"Patriot, Statesman, Liberator—the memory of Abraham Lincoln will be sacredly cherished by every lover of humanity and every believer in equal rights until the end of time. His is one of the few immortal names that were not born to die."

This cut shows the second floor as it appeared when it was Stuart & Lincoln's Law Office from 1837 to 1839.

The lower floor at that time was used by the County Court.

On February 12th, 1909, the Springfield Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution placed a Bronze Tablet on the building to commemorate the location of Abraham Lincoln's first Law Office.

The site is now owned and occupied by Stuart, the Confectioner.
